

Supplement to Newsletter-22

त्रिशना...

Thirst for knowledge...

A whole day event held at Hotel Sandesh the Prince on September 17 2005 by ICSI Mysore chapter ### highlight...

- Over 150 participants attended the program - Highest number of participation in recent years
- Participants included members of ICSI, parents of ICSI Students, lecturers of various colleges, businessmen, investors and representatives from the companies and Chartered Accountants apart from CS students.
- Great response from all the participants. Several participants expressed the willingness to participate in all our future programs.
- Many said that they never knew that CS is such a big profession. Parents were proud that their children took such a course.
- Visibility of the profession increased by "Investor's Clinic" among investors and professionals.
- Two colleges have come forward to arrange career counseling in their colleges.
- Mr. Sundareshan of Bangalore Chapter requested for repeating 'Trishnaa' at Bangalore.
- Mr. Dattatraya Joshi requested for "India - Wonderland" powerpoint presentation for National convention.
- All participants appreciated the caliber of ACS Students.
- Students got complete opportunity to organise the program and thus got first ever practical training in "management"
- Recorded as the biggest event in the calendar year 2005
- Made us to issue a supplement newsletter, for the first time...

Vaathaapi Ganapathim Bhaje...
Invocation by Karthik

Presentation: "Company Secretaryship – the Gateway for Success" by Kasturi and Chakri Hegade

“Annual General Meeting – A Model”

By Omkar Hegade, Vaagish, Shobha, Raghuvveer, Naman, Aditya Bhat.

Before AGM started, Kanchana explained the concept of AGM

"Trishna ..... 'thirst for Knowledge" driven me to lurking for the knowledge and suggested the passion and manner at which to over come my own disabilities like stage fear and understand better the theme of C.S., A.G.M., Corporate governance and hot debate on W.T.O." "Knowledge is life, ignorance is death, but TRISHNA is life blood."

Shrinivas M D.

The programme was rightly titled Trishnaa... thirst for knowledge. I, as a student definitely enhanced my knowledge. Wish to see such programmes in near future.

Rashmi

Great attempt in quenching the thirst of students and others...whole day was full of energetic and useful sessions, which made the Trishna a great success.

The suggestion of Mr. Rama Rao, that the members of the Institute should try to take any two students along with them whenever they go to Stock Exchange, should be implemented to the possible extent.

Pavithra

Madhwesh and Pavitra on “WTO – Boon or Bane?”

Trishna gave a platform for all of us to develop leadership qualities and hone up our communication skills. Moreover, the topics discussed enlightened us on various issues around us. It has built in confidence in all of us and has encouraged us to organize such events in the future.

Pracheta

Great opportunity for students to initiate, organise and actively participate in all events. Now, we have got confidence that we can organize these kinds of events successfully.
Thanks to MYSORE CHAPTER.

- Omkar

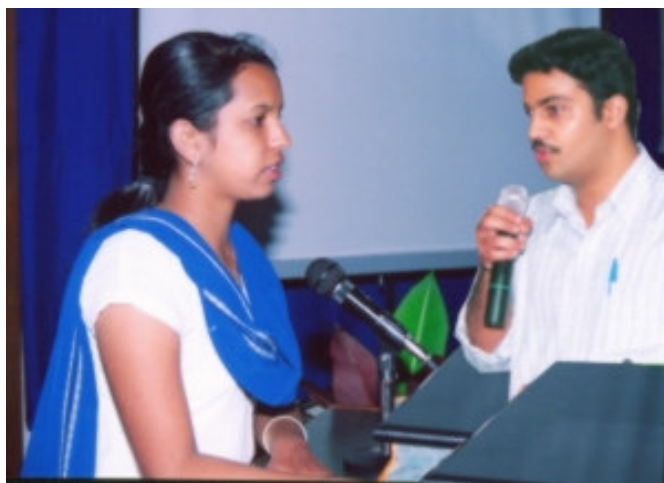

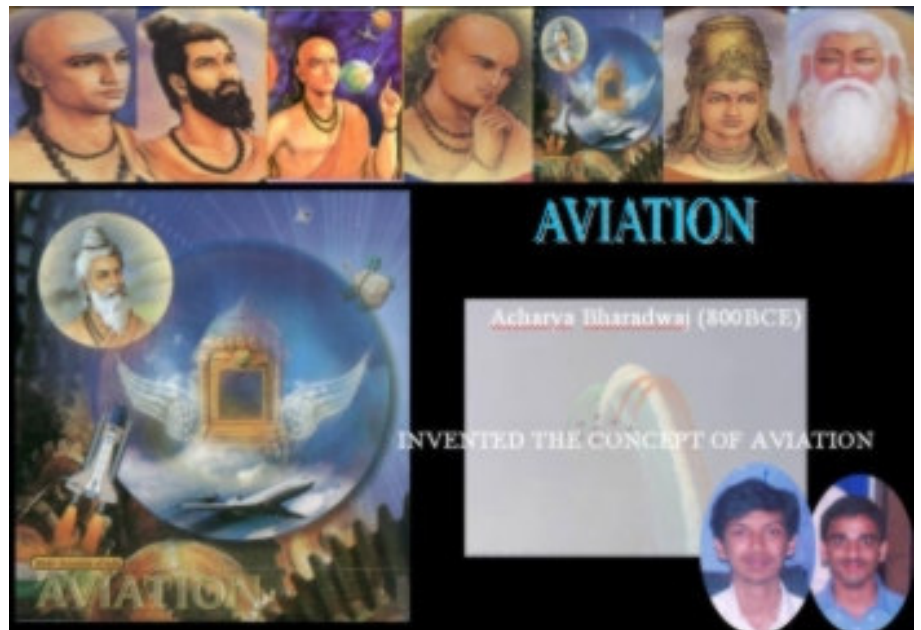

Mr. Sundereshan, Chairman Bangalore Chapter distributed Prizes to winners of June 2005 Session of ICSI examination.

Omkar and Rashmi on “Current Affairs”

Harish and Aditya
Bhat on “India: The Wonder Land”

Sahana & Raman Darshan
on “Were you aware of...?”

Ambika and Shwetha
The Program Anchors

Pracheta and Harish on “Corporate Governance”

C K Sabareeshan, Chairman Silver Jubilee Committee addressing the gathering

D D Bhat, Chapter Chairman and H M Dattatri, Chapter Secretary responding in Interaction Session

Chandu Narayan and Srinivas on “Basics of Security Market”

The program helped me to quench my thirst for knowledge a little bit, to know about various issues, which will really contribute for my growth. The practical session given by Mr. Rajesh Sampath showed how to invest money in stock markets safely.

Chakri.G. Hegde

Mr. Rajesh Sampath, President – Mangal Keshav Securities limited, Mumbai on

“Safe Journey through Securities Market”

A view of gathering...

Mr. Dattatraya Joshi, Vice Chairman SIRC distributed Prizes to winners of June 2005 Session of ICSI examination.

Trishnaa.. Team

