

Members are cordially invited to forward Articles for

ICSI-NIRC Newsletter for the month of June, 2024 on the theme

PCS: Embracing New Recognitions and Upholding the Significance of Code of Conduct and Ethics

Please send the Article to saurabh.jain@icsi.edu on or before 22nd June, 2024

Guidelines for Authors

1. The article must be original work of the author.
2. It must be an exclusive contribution for NIRC newsletter and must not have been published or sent for publication elsewhere.
3. The article should preferably have 2500-4000 words. If subject matter of the article requires article to exceed the defined limit, it may be published in two parts as per the discretion of the editorial board.
4. The article may be jointly contributed by two or more authors.
5. Research based, case studies based and opinion based articles of practical relevance to the profession of company secretaries are welcome.
6. Reference to the original source of the matter reproduced in the article if any, should be given in the article.
7. In case of article based on latest judicial pronouncements, it should contain:
 - a) The case title with citation,
 - b) The provision of law covered,
 - c) gist of the case in brief and the broad arguments on both sides presented before the court,
 - d) The judgment,
 - e) The ratio laid down by the decision,
 - f) Analysis/interpretation of the judgment from the author's point of view,
 - g) Concluding remarks if any.
8. In case of articles based on latest statutory amendment it should present the following:
 - a) position of law as it stood before the amendment
 - b) law proposed after the amendment
 - c) rationale behind the amendment and the likely impact of the amendment to clearly bring out the changes in law.
9. In general, articles should be informative, analytical, and based on thorough understanding and research on the subject matter covered by the article itself and must aim at creating value to the readers and other stakeholders.

With Best Regards

CS Jatin Singal
Chairman, ICSI-NIRC

