About MSOP

As per Regulation 50(b) & 46AB(b) of the Company Secretaries Regulations, 1982, attendance and successful completion of Management Skills Orientation Programme (MSOP) designed by the Institute for a period of 15 days is compulsory in respect of candidates completing the final or Professional Programme examination on or after June 1986. With effect from 1st April, 1987 every candidate irrespective of possessing any secretarial experience or having passed the final or Professional Programme examination in any session is required to undergo the fifteen days Management Skills Orientation Programme, as a prerequisite for admission as an Associate Member.

- While the candidate passing the Company Secretaryship Examination, acquire good theoretical knowledge base, they need to have some exposure in practical perspective of profession also which is essential for them for their future career. MSOP provides opportunities to them to have an interaction with experienced faculty and senior members of this profession, which will enhance the candidates' self-confidence prior to their becoming full-fledged members of the Institute of company Secretaries of India (ICSI).
