Major Attractions of Kolkata

Kolkata, the cultural capital of India, is a city rich in history, heritage, and diverse cultural influences. From colonial-era architecture to bustling markets and vibrant festivals, Kolkata offers a myriad of attractions that captivate visitors from around the world. Here are some of the city's major attractions:

Kalighat Temple : Kalighat Temple is one of the most sacred pilgrimage sites in Kolkata, dedicated to Goddess Kali. Located in the bustling Kalighat area, this ancient temple is believed to have been built on the sacred site where Goddess Sati's right foot's toes fell as mentioned in Hindu scriptures. Devotees throng to seek blessings and offer prayers to the fierce deity, making it a significant religious landmark in the city

Dakshineswar Kali Temple : Situated on the eastern bank of the Hooghly River, the Dakshineswar Kali Temple is a revered Hindu pilgrimage site. Built in 1855 by Rani Rashmoni, the temple is dedicated to Goddess Kali. Its distinctive architecture and serene ambiance attract devotees and tourists alike, especially during religious festivals.

Bhootnath Temple : Bhootnath Temple is an enticing edifice built in the typical Shikara style of architecture. It is exquisitely carved in a serpentine manner and houses the idol of Nandi Bull in the courtyard. The other Hindu religious figurines like Lord Vishnu, Goddess Durga, Lord Hanuman, etc. can be seen inside.

Belur Math : Located across the river from Dakshineswar, Belur Math is the headquarters of the Ramakrishna Math and Mission. Founded by Swami Vivekananda, this spiritual complex harmoniously blends different architectural styles. The serene surroundings and the spiritual atmosphere make Belur Math a place for contemplation and reflection.

Howrah Bridge : Spanning the Hooghly River, the Howrah Bridge is one of Kolkata's most recognizable landmarks. Completed in 1943, this cantilever bridge is a marvel of engineering and a lifeline for the city, connecting Kolkata with its twin city, Howrah. The bridge offers breath taking views of the river and the bustling activities on its banks.

Victoria Memorial : The Victoria Memorial is an iconic symbol of Kolkata's colonial heritage. Built between 1906 and 1921, this majestic marble structure pays homage to Queen Victoria. Set amidst sprawling gardens, the memorial houses a museum showcasing artifacts, paintings, and photographs from the British era, providing visitors with a glimpse into Kolkata's past..

Metro under River Ganga : The Metro under River Ganga in Kolkata is a ground breaking infrastructure project that connects the city's metro network between Kolkata and Howrah.
